DETAILED ACTION

This communication is responsive to the amendment filed March 9, 2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-3 and 5-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1 and 9 recites "said arrangement" in lines 9 and 6 respectively. It is unclear if they refers to the intermediate plate arrangement or the pre-stressing arrangement.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 and 6-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Davies et al. ('501).

Davies et al. discloses a friction clutch comprising a housing (18), an intermediate plate arrangement (20, 58, 62), an elastic prestressing arrangement (Figs. 2 and 3), restraining members (59, 60), annular pockets, a helical spring element (57), and frictional surfaces.

Claims 1-3 and 5-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Miller ('817).

Miller discloses a friction clutch comprising a housing (10, 11), an intermediate plate arrangement (20, 21), an elastic prestressing arrangement (30), restraining members (32, 33), annular pockets (29), (clinched bolts (33), a helical spring element (30), and frictional surfaces.
